TREE SEED PLANTING INSTRUCTIONS

A very small area of land will grow many thousands of Tree and Evergreen Seedlings. Select a level spot protected from winds, and handy for watering. Make the seed beds 4 feet wide; cover with lath shade as shown under Fig. 3. Prepare the soil by deep plowing or spading. If the soil is heavy, work in sand, humus, or any of the prepared soil conditioners. Flats are desirable when sowing small quantities of seed of different varieties. Make the flats 4 inches deep and use 1/4 inch wire mesh bottoms instead of wood. The ideal soil is a sandy loam.

TREE SEEDS are sown in rows or broadcast, both spring and fall. A seed bed 10 ft. long and 4 ft. wide contains enough space for 3000 to 5000 seedlings. After the seed is sown, cover the ground bed with burlap. Remove burlap when the seed germinates.

While most nursery seeds will germinate in one to four weeks, there are some that will not germinate until the second year. Among these are Japanese Yew, Multiflora Rose, Junipers, English Holly, American Holly, Dogwood, Pyracantha etc. These slower germinating seeds should be planted slightly deeper and mulched lightly to retain moisture.

After the seed beds begin to germinate, sprinkle dry sand lightly over the beds. The sand will help to hold moisture, reflect the hot sun, reduce weeds, and most of all, create a fast drying surface which is essential for controlling damping-off.

TRANSPLANTING INSTRUCTIONS

In Fig. 1 we show how to transplant seedling trees, lily plants, or flowers. Use a board 4 feet long and 3 or 4 inches wide. Dig the trench as shown.

Fig. 1

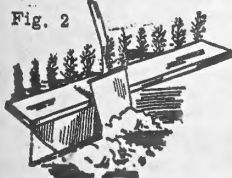

Fig. 2 shows a planting of young trees completed. Now the bed is ready for shade.

Fig. 3

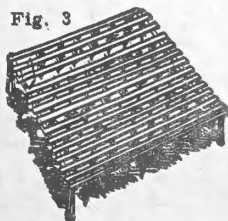

Fig. 3 shows a completed lath shade placed 15 inches above the ground level. These frames are made 4 feet square for easy handling. Lath is spaced 1 inch apart. These frames are very useful for shading evergreen, lily, and many kinds of flowers, as well as small seedlings the first season of growth.

TREE SEEDS

To have trees, seed must first be planted. Tree seed comes from the four corners of the earth. We have the right species of tree seeds for planting in climatic zone in North America.

We have sources of supply covering all parts of the world and we are therefore in a position to supply hundreds of other varieties. If in need of varieties not listed here, let us have a list of your requirements and we will quote to you our best prices. On special orders we cannot accept orders for less than $5 worth of each item.

We attempt to maintain stocks of the following items for prompt shipment of your orders, except on seeds that mature late. These sometimes will be shipped upon receipt of the new crop seeds.

EVERGREEN SEEDLINGS

A Young, Growing Industry —

Christmas Tree Production

PUT YOUR IDLE LAND TO WORK!

Over 40,000,000 Christmas Trees are used each year. Plantation Quality Trees ALWAYS command premium prices. Wholesale price in recent years, $1.50 to $3.00 per tree. Make a $1000 investment to plant a 5 acre tract worth over $5000 for timber in about 30 years ($10 per acre per year). Bring cash profits by thinning Christmas trees from a forest plantation of at least $1000 per acre. Are a cash crop requiring no cultivation or extra care. Will increase the value of a property if it is being held for resale. Act as an inflation-proof savings account, paying a high rate of interest. Pay for a college education for your children if started early and properly managed. Bring idle agricultural land into production profitably. Improve soil by retaining moisture, preventing erosion, and restoring fertility.

WHEN AND HOW TO PLANT TREES

Since the demand for quality Christmas Trees has been increasing considerably each year, more and more people are finding it very profitable planting some of their land with Evergreen Seedlings for Christmas Trees. The trees most in demand at present are Scotch Pine, Red Pine, Norway Spruce, White Pine, Austrian Pine, White Spruce, Fir respectively, although many other varieties sell readily.

For a maximum yield of quality trees they should be planted 4 1/2 by 4 1/2 feet apart. This will permit the growth of 2,150 trees per acre, figuring cutting when 5 to 7 feet tall. It is rather fortunate that the long needle pines are so popular because they will make a Christmas Tree of cutting size in 5 to 7 years. This is indeed a very fast turnover, and when you consider the small initial investment, the tiny tract of land, and the minimum labor required for producing say 1,000 trees, you can readily understand how a very nice profit can be realized.

Through our own experience we will give you a few pointers on how to grow fine quality trees. It is important to plant the long needle varieties in untilled land such as sod or grassland. The first summer after planting and even into the second year, the seedlings will be difficult to distinguish because of the high weeds and grass. Experience has proven that the strong fast growing seedlings will push up easily through the weeds which serve as protection from adverse weather conditions. By the third year the weeds can be mowed between the rows, but that isn't necessary.

Spruce and Fir seedlings on the other hand should be planted in prepared ground and cultivated for several seasons after which, they can be handled the same as the long needle varieties. Spruce and Fir will take several years longer to mature, but they usually command a higher price.

After the third year the long needle varieties may start growing to fast. If more than a foot of growth is put on in one season the trees may not be as bushy as preferred. This is remedied by cutting back any growth over one foot. This shearing must be done during June or early July. Spruce and Fir, due to their slow growth do not generally present the problem of overgrowth, but some shearing is generally required and this can be done in the fall and winter. They may be planted by using a sharp spade or trowel, making a slit in the ground, insert the roots of the seedling and most important of all press the soil firmly around the plant using the heel of your shoe, thus preventing air from reaching and drying the roots. Where planting large numbers of trees we would suggest planting by machine.

WE WILL MACHINE PLANT SEEDLINGS FOR OUR CUSTOMERS

We are pleased to announce that we are offering to our customers, machine planting service for Christmas Tree and other seedlings. JAP YEWS-TAXUS

Mounded - Spreading - Upright

The shining dark green foliage of the YEWS, their extreme hardiness in full sun or shade, and their variety of shapes make them one of the most useful and valuable of the evergreens. They grow slowly and may be kept in the size and shape desired by occasional shearing. For lasting beauty in foundation planting, evergreen hedges or group plantings, they have no equal.

In recent years interest in YEWS has increased to a greater extent than in any other Evergreen family. Many of the horticultural forms are quite new and there exists considerable confusion with regards to names and forms. We are listing here some of the better varieties for this area. We are sure you will find varieties here to fill almost any need you might have.

UPRIGHT YEW

SPREADING JAPANESE YEW
Taxus cuspidata—The Spreading Japanese Yew usually grows more wide than tall, branching out from the bottom with several stems, developing into a bush form. The development of this tree is also governed considerably by the training it receives. By keeping the side branches pruned off for a time the growth is naturally more upright, while by pruning the top branches the growth can be made much lower to the ground, and in that way develop a low branching habit. PRICE: Potted plants $1.50 each; others at $2.98 and up to $12.00 for extra large specimens.

HICKS YEW
Taxus media hicksii—This is a columnar form with branches ascending almost vertically, generally growing with numerous stems. Its normal growth is narrow because of its branching habit, but by trimming when small, it can be grown into extremely narrow form.

It has rich, dark glossy green color, which accounts for its popularity. It has been found very resistant to extremes of heat and drought, better than some other forms.

PRICE: Potted plants $1.50; 12 to 15 in. sheared plants, $2.98; other sizes up to $10.00 each.

HICKS YEW

BROWNS YEW
Taxus cuspidata brownii—The normal development of the Brown's Yew is a graceful vase shape, somewhat more upright than the regular Spreading Yew. It has heavy, waxy, dark green foliage, grows rapidly and develops into a graceful and attractive habit.

PRICE: $3.25 to $7.50 each.

Brown's Yew

MELLINGER'S LAWN SEED MIXTURES

HAVE A BEAUTIFUL LAWN--don't call it "work"--it's play, it's fun, it's healthful exercise. Treat your grass as a living thing, which it is--feed it, trim it carefully; be sure your mower is sharp. A dull mower soon ruins a lawn; it tears the leaf and pulls the roots. The cut should be easy and clean. Patch up its "sore" spots, remove its enemies, the weeds, look at it, "talk" to it, admire it, love it, feed it, stay with it. It is the perfect place for all the family to play, to rest, for fellowship and to breathe in rich, pure, refreshing air!

How to Prune and Plant

Many failures of newly transplanted stock are due to the lack of proper pruning. When trees are dug in the nursery, some of the feed roots are left in the ground, therefore, when transplanting it is necessary to restore the balance between the roots and the top by removing part of the tops. Spreading roots out naturally and work soil around them. Put in good dirt around roots, fill hole with water. Then fill hole with loose dirt.

PRICES of all TREES and SHRUBS are BARE ROOT PRICES, unless noted otherwise. Ask for prices on trees and shrubs potted or Balled and Burlapped.

Rose Culture Directions

How to Prune

Properly pruned and planted

Plant roses where they will get full sun at least half of the day. They thrive in any good garden soil that is well drained. Fertilizer or well rotted manure should be worked into the soil before planting. Dig holes large enough to avoid crowding the roots and deep enough so the joint or bud just above the roots will be about 2 inches below the surface of the soil. Water thoroughly-tamp soil down firmly around the plant to prevent air pockets. Hill soil up around each plant to a height of 6 inches. Prune according to illustration. Keep Rose planting well watered at all times. Apply fertilizer twice during the summer, at 30-day intervals. For winter protection, hill soil up around each plant to a height of 8 to 12 inches.

We sincerely believe no other breed of ducks can compare with Pekins. We specialize in quality ducklings. Among all breeds the White Pekins are preferred by all meat buyers. They command the highest meat price.

No other fowl puts on weight as fast as Pekin ducklings. You can almost see them grow. Our customers are surprised at the fast growth and the minimum cost of raising.

Try raising several flocks this year, thereby having some to sell the year round. 25 for $9; 100 for $28.00.
